

Consulting

We create learning partnerships with our clients and design bespoke interventions that address their business issues and transform the culture of their business sustain and deepen these benefits. We achieve this through using our BUSINESS TRANSFORMATION CYCLE methodology.

We have learnt through consulting on business issues such as:

- Integrating new and legacy software
- Increasing share price
- Redesign supply chain
- Create e commerce solution
- Transforming training into OD department

Programmes and Seminars

CPL offer seminars in all aspects of the Business Transformation Cycle:

- Skills for business transformation
- Double loop learning
- Team dynamics
- Coaching Skills

These are open to anyone to attend, additionally, these may be run in-house and designed around your business issue and culture .

People leading change can learn how to work with the BTC in their own organisations through attending CPL 's Leading Business Transformation Practitioners' Programme.

Coaching/Speaking Partners

Mike and Gill and other CPL consultants offer confidential individual coaching and are speaking partners to people leading or dealing with deep change issues in their own career and lives.
